Day 1:

- Arrive in Agra and check into your hotel.
- Head to the Taj Mahal for a sunrise visit. The Taj Mahal is one of the most famous landmarks in India, and is best viewed at sunrise or sunset.
- After your visit, head to Agra Fort. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is a massive red sandstone fortress that was once the residence of the Mughal emperors.
- In the afternoon, explore the local markets and bazaars for some souvenir shopping.
- End the day with a delicious dinner at one of the many restaurants in Agra.

Day 2:

- After breakfast, visit the Tomb of Itmad-ud-Daulah, also known as the "Baby Taj". This white marble mausoleum is often referred to as a draft of the Taj Mahal and is a beautiful example of Mughal architecture.
- Next, head to Fatehpur Sikri, a deserted city that was once the capital of the Mughal Empire. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is home to some of the most impressive architecture in India, including the Jama Masjid and the Tomb of Salim Chishti.
- Return to Agra in the late afternoon and spend some time at Mehtab Bagh, a beautiful garden that offers a stunning view of the Taj Mahal at sunset.
- End the day with a delicious dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3:

- After breakfast, check out of your hotel and visit the local marble factories to see how the famous Agra marble inlay work is done.
- If time permits, visit the local markets for some last-minute shopping.
- Depart Agra for your next destination.

Note: This itinerary can be adjusted based on your interests and preferences, and it is recommended to book your tickets for the Taj Mahal and other attractions in advance to avoid long queues.
