

Andong Hahoe Folk Village

Day 1:

- Depart from Suwon and travel to Andong, located in the Gyeongsangbuk-do province of South Korea.
- Arrive in Andong and check into your accommodation.
- Start your day by visiting the Andong Hahoe Folk Village, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Explore the village, known for its well-preserved traditional Korean houses (hanok) and cultural heritage.
- Participate in cultural activities such as traditional mask dance performances, mask-making workshops, or traditional music performances.
- Enjoy a traditional Korean dinner at one of the local restaurants in the village.

Day 2:

- Visit the Andong Confucian Academy, known as Dosan Seowon. It was established during the Joseon Dynasty and served as a place for learning and teaching Confucianism. Explore the tranquil grounds and learn about Confucian culture.
- Take a stroll along the Nakdong River, which flows through Andong. Enjoy the beautiful scenery and relax in one of the riverside parks.
- Visit the Andong Folk Museum, which displays artifacts and exhibits related to the region's traditional culture, including folk crafts, farming tools, and traditional costumes.
- In the evening, savor a traditional Andong-style dinner, which includes dishes like jjimdak (braised chicken) and heotjesabap (a local specialty rice dish).

Day 3:

- Take a day trip to the nearby Byeongsanseowon Confucian Academy. This academy, established in the 16th century, is another significant site for Confucian education. Explore the tranquil surroundings and learn about Confucian teachings and rituals.
- Visit Bongjeongsa Temple, one of the oldest Buddhist temples in Korea. Admire the beautiful architecture, explore the temple grounds, and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere.
- If time permits, consider visiting the Woryeonggyo Bridge, a historic stone bridge that spans the Nakdong River. It offers scenic views of the surrounding countryside.
- Return to Andong for a final evening in the city. You can visit local markets, try traditional street food, or simply relax and soak in the atmosphere of this historic city.

Day 4:

- Depart from Andong and return to Suwon or your next destination.
