

BANGKOK

Day 1:

- Start your day early and head to Wat Phra Kaew (Temple of the Emerald Buddha) and the Grand Palace. These are two of Bangkok's most iconic and stunning attractions. Be sure to dress appropriately with covered shoulders and knees.
- After exploring the temples, take a tuk-tuk or taxi to the nearby Wat Pho temple complex, home to the famous reclining Buddha statue.
- Take a river taxi down the Chao Phraya River and stop at Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn), which is especially beautiful during sunset.

Day 2:

- Start your day at Chatuchak Weekend Market, one of the largest markets in the world. You can find everything from clothing and souvenirs to delicious street food.
- In the afternoon, visit Jim Thompson House, a beautiful traditional Thai house that showcases the history and culture of Thailand.
- In the evening, take a stroll through Chinatown and enjoy the street food and markets.

Day 3:

- Visit the famous Wat Traimit temple, home to the world's largest solid gold Buddha statue.
- Take a short boat ride to the flower and vegetable markets at Pak Khlong Talat. The market is open 24/7 and is a feast for the senses.
- In the evening, head to Khao San Road, the famous backpacker street, for a night out with cheap drinks and street food.

Day 4:

- Take a day trip to Ayutthaya, the ancient capital of Thailand. You can see the ruins of temples and palaces that date back to the 14th century.
- Alternatively, you can visit the floating markets at Damnoen Saduak or Amphawa for a unique shopping experience.

Bangkok is a city that has so much to offer, and this itinerary just scratches the surface. Be sure to try the street food, visit the local markets, and immerse yourself in the vibrant culture of Thailand's capital city.
