Day 1:

- Morning: Start your day by exploring the historic city center of Bordeaux. Visit the Place de la Bourse, a beautiful square reflecting on the Miroir d'Eau, the world's largest reflecting pool. Admire the stunning architecture and stroll along the pedestrian-friendly streets.
- Afternoon: Explore the Cité du Vin, a unique museum dedicated to wine culture and heritage. Discover the interactive exhibits, enjoy wine tastings, and learn about the history of winemaking in the region.
- Evening: Enjoy a traditional Bordeaux dinner at one of the city's gourmet restaurants, accompanied by a glass of local wine.

Day 2:

- Morning: Take a guided tour or a self-guided walk along the Quai des Chartrons, a historic district known for its wine merchants and beautiful 18th-century buildings. Visit the CAPC Museum of Contemporary Art, located in a former warehouse.
- Afternoon: Take a short trip to the nearby Saint-Émilion, a charming village famous for its vineyards and medieval architecture. Explore the narrow streets, visit the underground Monolithic Church, and enjoy wine tastings at local wineries.
- Evening: Return to Bordeaux and enjoy a leisurely evening by taking a walk along the Garonne River or having a picnic in one of the city's parks.

Day 3:

- Morning: Visit the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Bordeaux, one of France's finest art museums. Admire the impressive collection of paintings, sculptures, and decorative arts from various periods.
- Afternoon: Take a wine tour to the Médoc wine region, known for its prestigious vineyards and renowned châteaux. Visit some of the classified growth wineries, learn about the winemaking process, and indulge in tastings of Bordeaux's famous red wines.
- Evening: Enjoy a sunset river cruise along the Garonne River, where you can relax and admire the city's beautiful skyline while sipping on a glass of Bordeaux wine.

Day 4:

- Morning: Explore the vibrant neighborhood of Chartrons, known for its antique shops, trendy boutiques, and lively atmosphere. Browse through the markets and shops, and perhaps pick up some local souvenirs.
- Afternoon: Take a short trip to the Bassin d'Arcachon, a picturesque coastal area known for its sandy beaches and oyster farming. Climb the Dune du Pilat, the highest sand dune in Europe, for breathtaking views of the bay.
- Evening: Enjoy a seafood dinner in one of the restaurants in Arcachon, savoring fresh oysters and other delicious seafood dishes.
