

DADOHAEHAESANG

Day 1:

Morning: Start your journey by heading to Mokpo, a city located near the entrance to Dadohaehaesang National Park. Explore the lively Mokpo Modern History Museum to learn about the city's history and culture.

Afternoon: Take a ferry from Mokpo to Hongdo Island, one of the major islands within the national park. Enjoy the scenic boat ride and immerse yourself in the island's natural beauty. Explore the island's trails, visit the Hongdo Lighthouse, and take in the breathtaking coastal views.

Evening: Check-in at a guesthouse or resort on Hongdo Island and enjoy a relaxing evening by the sea.

Day 2:

Morning: Take a boat from Hongdo Island to Heuksando Island, another picturesque island within the national park. Explore the island's hiking trails, visit the Seaweed Museum to learn about seaweed cultivation, and enjoy the tranquility of the island's beaches.

Afternoon: Continue your island exploration by visiting Bogildo Island, known for its beautiful forests and serene atmosphere. Enjoy a picnic by the beach, hike through the lush greenery, and take in the scenic views of the surrounding islands.

Evening: Return to Mokpo and indulge in some local cuisine, especially seafood dishes that the city is famous for. Take a stroll along the Mokpo Yudal Mountain Cable Car or enjoy the night view of the city from Yudalsan Mountain.

Day 3:

Morning: Travel to Wando, a city located on the southern coast of the Korean Peninsula and a gateway to several islands within the national park. Explore Wando Arboretum, a vast botanical garden featuring a wide variety of plant species and beautiful landscapes.

Afternoon: Take a ferry from Wando to Jeungdo Island, known for its extensive mudflats and breathtaking sunsets. Explore the mudflats, participate in mudflat activities like clam digging or mud skiing, and enjoy the island's peaceful atmosphere.

Evening: Return to Wando and savor some fresh seafood at one of the local restaurants. Explore the Wando Fish Market, where you can find a wide variety of seafood delicacies.

Day 4:

Morning: Take a boat from Wando to Nokdo Island, a hidden gem within Dadohaehaesang National Park. Enjoy the unspoiled natural beauty of the island, hike through its trails, and relax on the pristine beaches.

Afternoon: Explore the underwater world by taking a snorkeling or diving tour around Nokdo Island. Marvel at the colorful coral reefs and diverse marine life that inhabit the surrounding waters.

Evening: Return to Wando or Mokpo and conclude your trip with a farewell dinner, reminiscing about your memorable experiences in Dadohaehaesang National Park.
