

ITA EWON

Day 1: Morning:

- Start your day in Itaewon by visiting Gyeongnidan-gil, a charming neighborhood known for its trendy cafes and unique shops. Enjoy a leisurely breakfast at one of the local cafes, where you can find a variety of international cuisines.
- After breakfast, explore the neighborhood's boutiques, art galleries, and concept stores. Gyeongnidan-gil is a great place to find unique fashion items, accessories, and handmade crafts.

Afternoon:

- Head to Itaewon Street, the main street of the neighborhood, known for its vibrant atmosphere and diverse range of international restaurants, bars, and shops.
- Enjoy a delicious lunch at one of the many international restaurants in Itaewon. You can find cuisines from all over the world, including Korean, Mexican, Turkish, Indian, and more.
- Spend the afternoon shopping in the various boutiques, fashion stores, and vintage shops along Itaewon Street. Don't forget to explore the underground shopping mall, where you can find a wide range of clothing, accessories, and cosmetics.

Evening:

- As the evening approaches, Itaewon transforms into a bustling nightlife destination. Experience the vibrant nightlife by visiting one of the many bars, clubs, or live music venues in the area. Itaewon is particularly popular among expatriates and tourists for its energetic nightlife scene.
- Enjoy dinner at one of the restaurants offering international cuisine or indulge in Korean barbecue at one of the local barbecue restaurants. Itaewon is also known for its diverse dining options, so you can choose from a wide range of cuisines.
- Take a leisurely walk along Itaewon Street, soak in the lively atmosphere, and maybe even do some more shopping if you feel like it.

Day 2 (Optional): Morning:

- If you have more time to explore Itaewon, start your day by visiting the Leeum, Samsung Museum of Art. Located near Itaewon, this museum showcases a remarkable collection of traditional and contemporary Korean art.
- Explore the museum's different exhibition halls, which feature Korean ceramics, paintings, calligraphy, and modern art installations. Take your time to appreciate the art and learn about Korean culture and history.

Afternoon:

- Head back to Itaewon and try a different dining experience. Explore the local street food stalls and sample a variety of Korean snacks and delicacies. Itaewon is known for its street food scene, so be sure to try popular snacks like tteokbokki, kimbap, and mandu.
- Visit the War Memorial of Korea, located near Itaewon. This museum commemorates the history of the Korean War and showcases military artifacts, exhibitions, and outdoor displays. Learn about Korea's military history and pay tribute to the sacrifices made during the war.
