Detailed Itinerary

Day 01 –

Kochi to Munnar: The Uncharted Territory of God's Own Nation

A representative welcomes you when you arrive at the railway station or Kochi International Airport. Travel to the Munnar hills, a verdant paradise in Kerala with endless stretches of spice and tea plantations as well as a wide range of plants and animals. See the Cheeyappara and Valara waterfalls along the route, as well as the picturesque tea valleys and misty hills. After checking into your Munnar hotel or resort, enjoy a free afternoon. Enjoy a cup of tea in the evening and go on a local shopping spree at the Munnar market. Spend the night at the resort or hotel.

Day 02 –

Enjoy Stunning Views of Munnar City with Munnar Sightseeing

Prepare yourself to tour Munnar after breakfast. Visit places like Eco Point, Blossom Park, Hydel Park, TATA Tea Museum, and more to take in the amazing scenery of the Munnar hills. After supper, make your way back to your hotel or resort to spend the night.

Day 03 –

Munnar to Thekkady: The Wildlife Destination

After breakfast today, depart from your accommodation and head to Thekkady, Kerala's wildlife hotspot and dubbed the "Spice Bag of the State." Traveling to this wild location will take you through the stunning Western Ghats hills and valleys. Take an incredible boat ride in Periyar Lake, which passes through the Periyar Tiger Reserve, as well. At the Periyar Reserve, you will get the opportunity to see wild creatures like elephants, bison, sambars, deer, etc. Staying the night at the hotel.

Day 04 –

The Land Of Lush Blue Lagoons: Thekkady to Alleppey

Check out of the hotel after breakfast and head to Alleppey. Experience a mind-blowingly exciting stay with the Houseboat. A canal cruise offers a variety of views of the surrounding landscape, including villages, paddy fields, coconut trees, fishermen, and everyday life. Staying overnight on a houseboat..
