

The Best of France and Switzerland

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01 –

Reach Paris: The City of Lights, Glamour, and Romance

The driver will pick you up and take you to your Paris hotel when you land at the airport. You have the rest of the day to yourself when you check in. You can sample the flavors of real French cuisine by venturing out to renowned cafes like Le Procope or Les Deux Magots. You may explore Paris's nightlife later in the evening by going to well-known clubs like Le Duplex or Bus Palladium.

Touring Paris | Climbing the Eiffel Tower | Seine River Cruise

You will be picked up from your hotel by the driver, who will then take you on a sightseeing tour of Paris. Admire Place Vendôme's magnificence, which includes the stunning Vendôme Column and exclusive shops. Visit the third level of the Eiffel Tower to see a breathtaking panorama of the city. Go to Montmartre on a funicular to see the white-domed Basilica of Sacre-Coeur. Return to the vehicle and be taken to the Paris port where you can board a river cruise down the Seine. Get dropped off at your hotel later.

Disneyland Visit | Bring Back Your Childhood Memories

You will be picked up by the driver and driven to Disneyland Paris from the hotel. Select one of two enchanted alternatives. One is Disney Parks, where five amazing areas are home to timeless rides, productions, and parades that bring fairy tales to life. The other is Walt Disney Studios Park, which offers amazing stunt displays, an inside look at movie sets, and a window into the world of big-budget movies. Return to the hotel for an overnight stay following the tour.

Day 04 –

Paris to Lausanne through Geneva | Geneva orientation tour

Once you've checked out, the driver will come for you and transport you to Lausanne, which is in Switzerland. Stop along the road at Geneva to explore the city. Check out the famous fountain and city landmark, Jet d'Eau. Investigate the United Nations Buildings, which stand as emblems of international negotiations. See the gorgeous Flower Clock, which is located next to Lake Geneva. Once you've finished your sightseeing, carry on to Lausanne for the night.

Day 05 –

Lausanne to Zurich via an ascent of Mount Titlis

After checking out of your accommodation, the driver will transport you to Zurich. Before leaving for Zurich, take a tour of the Olympic Museum in Lausanne and educate yourself on the history of the games. Travel to Engelberg and ride the world's first rotating cable car to the summit of Mount Titlis, where you can enjoy views of the Swiss Alps. The "Cliff Walk," the highest suspension bridge in Europe, is also open for walking. After your Mount Titlis adventure, be dropped off at your Zurich hotel.

Day 06 -

Tour to the 'Top of Europe': Jungfrauoch Excursion

Your driver will come to your Zurich hotel and transfer you to the Grindelwald Terminal so you can take the Eiger Express to the Eigergletscher station. Once you arrive, ride the cogwheel train to the highest railway station in Europe, Jungfrauoch. Return to the hotel for an overnight stay in Zurich after the excursion.

Day 07 -

Trip to Lucerne | Sightseeing the City and Taking a Cruise on Lake Lucerne

Your chauffeur will come to your accommodation and drive you around the Swiss city of Lucerne for your sightseeing. Discover the city's recognizable Lion Monument, a striking sculpture honoring the Swiss Guards, and pay a visit to Kapell Brucke, the city's emblem, a quaint covered wooden bridge. Later, go a beautiful cruise. Return to the hotel after being transferred there to spend the night.

Day 08 -

Departure | Return Home by Air

After leaving the hotel, you will be driven to the Zurich Airport in time for your journey back to your home country. Bring a bag full of memories you will always treasure.
