Day 1: Arrival in Reykjavik

Arrive in Reykjavik, the capital city of Iceland. Spend the day exploring the city and its many attractions, such as the Hallgrimskirkja Church and the Harpa Concert Hall. In the evening, enjoy a meal at a local restaurant. Spend the night in Reykjavik.

Day 2: Snæfellsnes Peninsula

Drive to the Snæfellsnes Peninsula, located on the western coast of Iceland. The peninsula is known for its rugged coastline, volcanic craters, and black sand beaches. You can visit attractions such as the Arnarstapi Cliffs, the Kirkjufell Mountain, and the Djúpalónssandur Beach. Spend the night in the Snæfellsnes area.

Day 3: Vatnajökull National Park

Drive to Vatnajökull National Park, located in southeastern Iceland. The park is known for its glaciers, ice caves, and scenic hiking trails. You can visit attractions such as the Jökulsárlón Glacier Lagoon, the Svartifoss Waterfall, and the Skaftafell Visitor Centre. Spend the night in the Vatnajökull area.

Day 4: Landmannalaugar

Take a day trip to Landmannalaugar, a region located in the highlands of Iceland. The area is known for its colorful rhyolite mountains, geothermal pools, and hiking trails. You can go hiking, take a dip in the hot springs, or visit the nearby Hekla volcano. Return to the Vatnajökull area in the evening and spend another night there.

Day 5:Golden Circle

Drive the Golden Circle, a popular tourist route that showcases some of Iceland's most famous natural wonders. You can visit attractions such as the Thingvellir National Park, the Geysir Geothermal Area, and the Gullfoss Waterfall. Spend the night in Reykjavik.

Day 6:Departure

Depart from Cairns and head to the airport to catch your flight back home.

Note: This itinerary is just a suggestion and can be customized according to your preferences and interests. Also, make sure to check the weather conditions and the availability of the attractions before planning your trip.

Additionally, it's important to note that Landmannalaugar is only accessible during the summer months (June to September) and requires a 4x4 vehicle to reach.
