

Day 1: Arrival in Taipei

- Arrive in Taipei and check into your accommodation.
- Get familiar with the city's transportation system, including the MRT (subway) lines.
- Take a leisurely walk around the local area to get oriented.
- Enjoy dinner at a local restaurant in Taipei.

Day 2: Zushi Temple and Sanxia Old Street

- Start your day by taking a train or bus to Sanxia District in New Taipei City.
- Visit Zushi Temple, a historic temple
 known for its intricate architecture and
 cultural significance.
- Explore the temple complex and learn about its history and legends.
- Have lunch in a local eatery in Sanxia.
- Afterward, take a stroll through Sanxia Old Street, where you can find traditional shops and snacks.
- Return to Taipei city in the evening.

Day 3: Cultural and Historical Exploration

- Begin your day by visiting the National Palace
 Museum to see an extensive collection of Chinese art and artifacts.
- Have lunch at a local restaurant in the museum or nearby.
- Explore the Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall and enjoy the serene surroundings.
- Take a leisurely walk around the Liberty
 Square area or visit the nearby Zhongshan
 Hall.
- In the evening, consider exploring the vibrant Ximending area for shopping, entertainment, and dining.

Day 4: Departure

- Depending on your departure time, explore a
 nearby attraction or market, such as the Shilin
 Night Market.
- Enjoy your last meal in Taipei, trying local flavors.
- Do some last-minute souvenir shopping, if time allows.
- Depart from Taipei, taking fond memories of your
 visit to Zushi Temple and your exploration of the
 city.

Please note that this itinerary is a general guide and can be adjusted based on your interests and preferences. Be sure to check the opening hours of attractions, any travel advisories, and transportation schedules to Sanxia. Enjoy your time in Taipei, your visit to Zushi Temple, and your exploration of the area!

For More Information Contact Us:

