

DUBLIN

Day 1:

- Arrive in Dublin and check into your hotel.
- Start your exploration with a visit to Trinity College, Ireland's oldest university. Take a stroll through its historic campus and visit the stunning Long Room Library, which houses ancient manuscripts, including the Book of Kells.
- Explore the lively Temple Bar district, known for its vibrant nightlife, traditional pubs, and live music. Enjoy a pint of Guinness and soak in the lively atmosphere.
- Visit Dublin Castle, a historic fortress that played a significant role in Ireland's history. Explore its beautiful gardens and learn about the country's past through various exhibitions.

Day 2:

- Take a day trip to the scenic Wicklow Mountains, located just outside of Dublin. Visit Glendalough, an ancient monastic site nestled in a picturesque valley. Explore the ruins of the monastery, take a walk around the serene lakes, and enjoy the natural beauty of the surrounding mountains.
- Visit Powerscourt Estate, known for its stunning gardens and impressive house. Take a leisurely stroll through the landscaped gardens and enjoy the panoramic views of the Irish countryside.
- Return to Dublin in the evening and spend some time exploring the vibrant Temple Bar district or catch a traditional Irish music session in one of the pubs.

Day 3:

- Explore the Guinness Storehouse, a must-visit attraction in Dublin. Learn about the brewing process, enjoy panoramic views of the city from the Gravity Bar, and even learn to pour your own pint of Guinness.
- Visit the National Museum of Ireland, which has several branches in Dublin. Choose the branch that interests you the most, such as the Archaeology Museum, the Natural History Museum, or the Museum of Decorative Arts and History.
- Take a leisurely stroll through St. Stephen's Green, a beautiful public park located in the city center. Enjoy the tranquil surroundings and relax amidst nature.

Day 4:

- Visit the Kilmainham Gaol, a former prison that played a significant role in Irish history. Take a guided tour to learn about the prison's history and the political prisoners who were held there.
- Explore the vibrant and trendy neighborhood of Temple Bar during the daytime. Visit the various independent shops, boutiques, and art galleries.
- Discover the rich literary history of Dublin by visiting the Dublin Writers Museum or taking a literary walking tour to explore the sites associated with famous Irish writers such as James Joyce and Oscar Wilde.

Day 5:

- Before departing, take a stroll along the banks of the River Liffey and enjoy the views of Dublin's iconic bridges.
- Visit the EPIC The Irish Emigration Museum, which tells the story of the Irish diaspora and its impact on the world.
- Explore the vibrant Grafton Street, Dublin's premier shopping street, known for its high-end stores, street performers, and lively atmosphere.
- If time permits, take a relaxing walk in Phoenix Park, one of the largest enclosed city parks in Europe, home to Dublin Zoo and the residence of the Irish President.
