

NEW YORK CITY

Statue of Liberty: Start your trip by visiting one of the most iconic landmarks in New York City, the Statue of Liberty. Take a ferry to Liberty Island and enjoy the beautiful views of the city skyline from the top of the statue.

Ellis Island: After visiting the Statue of Liberty, take a short ferry ride to Ellis Island, which is home to the Ellis Island National Museum of Immigration. Here, you can learn about the history of immigration to the United States and even trace your own family's roots if they immigrated to the country.

Central Park: Spend the morning exploring the beautiful Central Park. You can rent a bike, take a horse carriage ride or just walk around the park and enjoy the greenery.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art: In the afternoon, visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art, which is one of the largest and most comprehensive art museums in the world. The museum has a vast collection of art and artifacts from all around the world, so be sure to plan your visit in advance to make the most of your time here.

One World Trade Center: Start the day by visiting the One World Trade Center, which is the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere. You can go up to the observation deck on the 100th floor and enjoy the panoramic views of the city.

9/11 Memorial and Museum: After visiting the One World Trade Center, visit the 9/11 Memorial and Museum, which is located at the site of the former World Trade Center. The museum has exhibits and artifacts that tell the story of the tragic events of September 11, 2001.

Times Square: Start the day by visiting Times Square, which is one of the busiest and most popular tourist destinations in New York City. You can walk around and explore the shops, restaurants, and theaters in the area.

Broadway Show: In the evening, catch a Broadway show. New York City is famous for its Broadway productions, and there are many theaters in the area that offer different shows

The High Line: Spend the morning exploring the High Line, which is an elevated park built on an abandoned railroad track. You can enjoy the beautiful views of the city and the Hudson River while walking along the park.

Chelsea Market: After visiting the High Line, visit the nearby Chelsea Market, which is a food hall with various vendors selling different types of food.

Brooklyn Bridge: Start the day by visiting the Brooklyn Bridge, which is a historic suspension bridge that connects Manhattan and Brooklyn. You can walk or bike across the bridge and enjoy the beautiful views of the city.

Brooklyn Museum: After visiting the Brooklyn Bridge, head to the nearby Brooklyn Museum, which has a vast collection of art and artifacts from various cultures around the world.

The Empire State Building: Start the day by visiting the Empire State Building, which is another iconic landmark in New York City. You can go up to the observation deck on the 86th floor and enjoy the panoramic views of the city.

Rockefeller Center: In the evening, visit Rockefeller Center, which is a complex of buildings that offer various attractions and activities. You can visit the Top of the Rock observation deck for more views of the city, or just walk around and explore the shops and restaurants in the area.

For More Infromation contact Us:

844-8464434

pkg@tourhawker.com

www.tourhawker.com

@Tourhawker