

PRAGUE CZECH REPUBLIC

Here's a suggested 5-night, 6-day itinerary for Prague,
Czech Republic

Day 1:

- Arrival and settling in: Arrive in Prague and check into your accommodation.
- Old Town Square: Start your trip by visiting the Old Town Square, the heart of Prague's historic center. Admire the stunning Gothic architecture of the Church of Our Lady before Týn and the Old Town Hall with its famous Astronomical Clock. Take a leisurely stroll through the cobblestone streets and explore the charming shops and cafes.

Day 2:

- Prague Castle: Begin your day by visiting Prague Castle, one of the largest castle complexes in the world. Explore St. Vitus Cathedral, stroll through the beautiful Royal Gardens, and enjoy the panoramic views of the city from the castle grounds. Don't miss the changing of the guard ceremony at noon.
- Charles Bridge: Afterward, make your way to the iconic Charles Bridge, a historic pedestrian bridge that spans the Vltava River. Admire the statues and take in the breathtaking views of the city. Explore the Lesser Town (Mala Strana) on the other side of the bridge, with its charming streets and Baroque architecture.

Day 3:

- Jewish Quarter (Josefov): Start the day by visiting the Jewish Quarter, known as Josefov. Explore the Jewish Museum, which includes the Old Jewish Cemetery and several historic synagogues. Learn about the rich Jewish heritage and history of Prague.
- Letná Park and Prague Metronome: In the afternoon, take a leisurely walk to Letná Park. Enjoy the peaceful atmosphere, beautiful views of the city, and visit the Prague Metronome, a giant functional metronome that stands on the site of a former Stalin monument.

Day 4:

- Prague's Lesser Known Neighborhoods: Spend the day exploring some of Prague's lesser-known neighborhoods.
 - Vyšehrad: Visit Vyšehrad, a historic fortress with a picturesque park overlooking the Vltava River. Explore the Vyšehrad Cemetery, where famous Czech figures are buried, and enjoy the serene atmosphere.
 - Žižkov: Head to the Žižkov neighborhood, known for its bohemian vibe and quirky attractions. Climb the Žižkov TV Tower for panoramic views of the city and visit the iconic statue of Jan Žižka on his horse.
 - Holešovice: Finish the day in the trendy Holešovice district. Explore the DOX Center for Contemporary Art, stroll along the waterfront of the Vltava River, and enjoy the vibrant local food and drink scene.

Day 5:

- Petřín Hill and Prague's Gardens: Start the day by visiting Petřín Hill, a peaceful green oasis in the heart of Prague. Climb the Petřín Tower for stunning views of the city or take a leisurely walk through the gardens.
- Malá Strana: Explore the charming neighborhood of Malá Strana, located at the foot of Prague Castle. Wander through its narrow streets, visit the beautiful Wallenstein Garden, and enjoy the picturesque atmosphere.

Day 6:

- Departure: Depending on your departure time, you may have some free time to explore more of the city, do some last-minute shopping, or savor a traditional Czech meal before heading to the airport.
